Boos of the Month

A big boo to Wake Forest for giving up 210 points in the month of October. They played five games in the month and were victorious... a win over powerhouse Appalachian State by a point and a win over another powerhouse Virginia (6-7) by three points.

They received their most attention of the year when they played Clemson. They lost only by 12-14. A boo to Northwestern (6-8) for taking a beating year-in and year-out. Do they ever win a game? In the month of October they gave up 225 points and scored just 23.

Other college boos to Nevada-Vegas, Colorado State and Oregon State who gave up 212, 179, and 222 points in the month of October. A boo to the Baltimore Colts for showing the N.F.L. to their worst defense in the league and not winning a game.

A boo to N.B.C. for not giving the interference records on their Sunday football telecasts.

L.T. last five years they would always mention the record of A.F.C. vs. N.F.C. See N.B.C. cover all A.F.C. games, and C.B.S. covers all N.F.C. games.

Over the years the A.F.C. always had a better record over their N.F.C. rivals. But this year, going into the month of November, the rival conferences have the same records against each other.

A boo to Scranton Tech High. After going into the month of October with a 3 and 1 record, they came out in the month of November with a 3-5 record. And they were picked to finish high in the H.I. 11 year.

There is a team in the Suburban contest we can give a boo to, but we won't because we don't feel we should pick on that same school every month.

Defending East champion Boston College has signed Union-Endicott's Mike Simcik.

The touchdown capped a nine-play drive. However, Hornetdale soon came back on a two-yard run to go ahead at the end of the third quarter.

The Hornets added two more touchdowns in the fourth and final period to top the Chargers.

Each team had 11 first downs, but the Chargers had but 93 yards rushing compared to Hornetdale's 248.
